The Brown Scholars Leadership Program nurtures and cultivates leadership, civic engagement and communication skills. Students participate in community service and civic engagement on campus and in the Louisville community.

Students are expected to participate in Brown Scholar activities, including attendance at various lectures, service activities, social activities, and leadership development activities. They are also expected to maintain a 3.0 grade point average.

For more information, contact Dr. Matisa Wilbon at mwilbon@bellarmine.edu or 502.452.8172.

Please note materials are due February 1. Applicants will be notified by March 1.

Steps to Apply

Resume

Please attach a resume outlining extracurricular activities, civic or volunteer involvement, and leadership roles.

Essay

Describe an experience in which you took a leadership role and had to move beyond your comfort zone in some way; highlight how you managed this experience and what you learned from it. As part of this essay, identify your strengths as a leader and the area that you would most like to strengthen by being in the Brown Scholars program.

Reference

Have one person who has been a mentor to you write a letter of reference for you in which he/she notes your leadership and/or service attributes.

Submit your application

1. Make one copy of the completed application form, resume, essay and reference for your records.
2. Mail the completed materials to:
