Global Languages

Beginning Italian

Delve into hearing, speaking, and reading Italian –one of the most beautiful languages in the world. Each class will be dedicated to a different category of words and verbs needed for conversation. Topics include: introductions, asking or receiving directions, making reservations, public transportation, numbers and time, shopping, ordering in restaurants, and making new friends. No previous knowledge of Italian expected or required.

Instructor: Melody Carriere, Ph.D., is an instructor of French, Italian, and Interdisciplinary Studies at Bellarmine University.

HMAN 161 / 3 Tuesdays / Feb. 15 – Mar. 1 / 6:30 – 8 p.m. / $39 ($49 after Feb. 8)

Continuing Spanish

If you have studied Spanish in the past and want to refresh and broaden your command of the language, this is the class for you! We will focus on communicating in the past tense and review basics of the language. Topics will be general, but specific needs can be accommodated.

Instructor: Page Curry, D.M.L., is an adjunct Associate Professor at Bellarmine University.

HMAN 254 / 10 Mondays / Feb.13 - Apr.16 / 5:30 - 6:30 p.m. / $115 ($125 after Feb. 6)

Continuing French

Was French an important area of interest for you years ago, but it's become rusty? We will concentrate on listening comprehension and speaking with confidence. Grammar review will focus on past tenses, object pronouns and problem areas requested by class members.

Instructor: Page Curry, D.M.L., is an adjunct Associate Professor at Bellarmine University.

HMAN 422 / 10 Thursdays / Feb.16 – Apr. 19 / 5:30 – 6:30 p.m. / $115 ($125 after Feb. 9)

Medical Spanish

Would you like to be able to ask and answer basic questions when working with Spanish-speaking patients? This course introduces you to the Spanish language, with emphasis on appropriate expressions such as “How are you?” “How old are you?” “What problem are you having?” and “How long have you had the pain?” We will also discuss important information you will need to know in order to work successfully with Latin American patients - the culture of the Hispanic community, basic rules of courtesy, greetings, attitudes toward health care, family and societal values.

Instructor: Page Curry, D.M.L., is an adjunct Associate Professor at Bellarmine University.

PROF 318 / 10 Mondays / Feb. 13. - April 16 / 6:45 – 7:45 p.m. / $115 ($125 after Feb. 6)
