Master of Arts in Communication

The Master of Arts in Communication Program provides a generalist approach to communication theory and literature. The program goals and outcomes include teaching students to lead and communicate effectively in the global workplace; training students to create effective communication programs within the private, nonprofit, and public sectors; and cultivating the ability to utilize media effectively and communicate ethically in a culturally diverse work environment.

The curriculum includes 21 hours of required courses with options for the remaining 9 hours to complete the degree. Of the remaining 9 hours, students will take 3 Topics courses or take a combination of a Topics course, thesis and/or an independent study. Topics courses will vary by semester and the specialty of the faculty member instructing the course.

Program Outcomes

Specifically, the Department of Communication's goals and anticipated outcomes are to ensure students will be competent:

- To lead individuals to communicate effectively.
- To develop the knowledge, capacity and competencies needed to create effective communication programs within the private, nonprofit, and public sector.
- To develop the knowledge, capacity and competencies needed to utilize media effectively.
- To develop knowledge, capacity and competencies to communicate ethically in a culturally diverse work environment.

Tuition and Fees

The cohort program is 30 hours with students taking 6 hours a semester for 5 semesters. The cost for tuition is $18,000. There is a $35.00 course fee per class. Books and classroom supplies are additional expenses.

Requirements for Admission

Please submit the following:

1. Completed application.
2. A non-refundable application fee of $25 (unless a BU alumna/e).
3. Personal statement: Please write a one page (typed) statement about your goals in pursuing a Master of Arts in Communication. This statement is used to assess your writing skills.
4. Two letters of recommendation (included in packet). Recommendations from persons able to evaluate either academic or professional potential are the most valuable.
5. Current Resume
6. Students are encouraged to submit GRE, GMAT, or LSAT scores, but it is not required for conditional admission.
7. If your undergraduate degree is from an international institution, you were born outside the United States, or English is your second language, you will be required to submit an official TOEFLiBT (internet-based test) score and receive a total score of 80 or higher. We will also consider an equivalent score on the IELTS or MELAB tests. The Admission, Progression and Graduation Committee reserves the right to require a TOEFL score from any applicant.
8. Final official transcript(s) from each college or university attended should be mailed to the Office of Graduate Admission and not be marked "Issued to Student."
9. If any transcript(s) or undergraduate degree(s) is from an international institution, you must provide an official copy of a third party course by course credential evaluation. The following organizations offer this service and information regarding processes and fees are available at: www.aacrao.org; www.wes.org, and www.ece.org. The Office of Graduate Admission reserves the right to request a certified copy of the original transcript(s).
10. Mail information to: Graduate Admission, Bellarmine University, 2001 Newburg Road, Louisville, KY 40205

For more information, contact the Office of Graduate Admission at 502.272.7200 or gradadmissions@bellarmine.edu.

Note: It is the student's responsibility to request all official transcripts and test scores. Official transcripts and test scores are mailed directly from the institution to Bellarmine University and should not be marked issued to student or addressed to the student.

International Student Requirements

Please complete the items under Procedure for Admission and submit the following:

U.S. law requires financial statements from a bank or other financial institution certifying the student's ability to fund the cost of attendance for one academic year minus the amount of any scholarship dollars received. Figures should be in U.S. dollars and must be certified as an official document by the bank or financial institution. A sponsor may be used if the sponsor attaches a signed affidavit stating that he/she will financially support the student until completion of a degree at Bellarmine University. If a sponsor is used, the sponsor's bank statement should accompany the letter. The amount that would need to be shown for this program is $30,856. This amount includes tuition and fees associated with the program and an average cost for living expenses, books, supplies, health insurance, transportation and personal expenses.

Master of Arts in Communication

Core Curriculum (21 hours)

COMM 600 - INTRODUCTION TO GRADUATE STUDY IN COMMUNICATION (3)

The purpose of this course is to introduce students to the discipline of communication, including but not limited to language, issues, breadth, contexts, and definitions. In addition, this course will prepare students for the master's program by developing their writing, research and presentation skills. Students will begin the process of identifying their definition of communication as well as the ability to construct an argument to support that choice.

COMM 605 - COMMUNICATION THEORY AND LITERATURE (3)

This course introduces students to the multiple and conflicting explanations of the process of human communication. Theories to be examined include structural and functional theories, cognitive and behavioral theories, interactive oral and conventional theories, and interpretive and critical theories.

COMM 607 - COMMUNICATION RESEARCH METHODS (3)

Students learn essential quantitative and qualitative techniques used in communication research. The course will include such methods as survey research, content and interaction analysis, ethnographic research, rhetorical criticism, and conversation and discourse analysis.

COMM 611 - INTERCULTURAL COMMUNICATION IN THE WORKPLACE (3)

This course examines communication and the changing dynamics of the global workplace. Students learn how cultural values affect all aspects of corporate communication, from negotiation and conflict strategies to advertising, public relations, and marketing communication. Intercultural communication issues faced in the workplace are also addressed, as in perception, nonverbal communication, religious issues that arise, and conflict.

COMM 613 - DIGITAL MEDIA (3)

This course examines the convergence of media and emergence of digital media, the effects these media have on individuals, communities, and society. Students examine political, technological, industry-specific, and production aspects of new media.

COMM 615 - MEDIA STUDIES (3)

This course provides a fundamental understanding of media. We will analyze media institutions, their history, technological capabilities, and effects. It is designed to offer an overview of theories, methods, contemporary debates and lasting issues in media studies.

COMM 699 - ETHICS IN COMMUNICATION (3)

This course addresses ethical dilemmas that arise within all forms of communication – interpersonal, corporate, mass media, or other forms of communication. It asks the students to develop a deep understanding of professional, philosophical, religious and pragmatic perspectives that shape ethical behavior.

Other Courses (9 hours)

COMM 692 - SPECIAL TOPICS IN COMMUNICATION (3)

This designation applies to courses offered in fields related to communication. Topics courses will vary by semester and the specialty of the faculty member instructing the course.

COMM 698 - THESIS OPTION (3 OR 6)

This course is designed for the student who desires to conduct a significant research project under the guidance of a faculty member and thesis committee. It involves a written scholarly document as well as a formal presentation.

COMM 694 - INDEPENDENT STUDY (3)

Guided reading or research in an area of special interest under the direction of a faculty member. Requires approval from the Graduate Committee. Prerequisites: COMM 605 and COMM 607 or permission of the Director of Graduate Studies.
