

Ireland

Summer 2008

July 14th – July 29, 2008

Legends and Leprechauns: IDC 301 (3 credits)

Exploring Cultural Heritage with Children's Literature

From leprechauns and boggarts to fairies, Irish tales have been enriching the lives of American children. Examine the broad nature of children's tales, including cross-cultural comparisons of common Disney fables. Using the rich variety of Irish land, seas, music and food, explore cultural connections to stories. Interview Irish locals about the legends they love and remember.

On Campus Application Deadline: February 22

Cost: $4395 (includes airfare from select destinations)

Contact Information

Hannah Holler-Egea
Study Abroad Advisor
Bellarmine University
Miles 113
502.452.8423
hholler@bellarmine.edu

Dr. Claire Hughes
Bellarmine University
BOB 305
502.452.8285
chughes@bellarmine.edu

Cooperative Center for Study Abroad
www.ccsa.cc
Northern Kentucky
University
200.319.6015
ccsa@nku.edu