

Drawing Without Fear

Have you ever said "I wish I could draw?" Well, you CAN draw. Take this refreshing course to over-come your fear of not "getting it right." We all See and Draw in different ways... but the process is the same for all. You will discover, and be able to embrace, your own unique style of drawing in this class. We will focus on basic steps to drawing successfully, and on making the Left-brain & Right-brain connection. Each class session will build upon the last to culminate in getting the "whole picture" and being able to relax and enjoy focusing on the world around you.

INSTRUCTOR: Susan Lacewell Clements, M.F.A., has taught at the University, College & Museum levels, as well as in the groundbreaking Notre Dame/Memorial Hospital Humanities Project, where she taught Art to practicing Physicians.

Thomas Merton: Insights from a Personal Friend

Thomas Merton was an acclaimed Catholic spiritual writer, poet, author and social activist. Gain insights on Merton's life, thoughts, and spirituality from one of his personal friends. Dr. Hinson will explore Merton's ecumenical perspectives, his view of monasticism in today's world, his search for the true self, his understanding of contemplation and the need for it in a world of action, his commitment to non-violence and peace, his views on other social issues, and his thoughts regarding spiritual direction.

INSTRUCTOR: Glenn Hinson, DPhil (Oxford University), taught Church history at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary for thirty years and served as a guest professor in numerous other schools. Dr. Hinson has published a number of essays on Merton.

HMAN 456 / 5 Thursdays / Mar. 7 – Apr. 11 (except Mar. 28) / 6:30 -8 p.m.
$69 ($79 after Feb. 28)
