

ISTANBUL 2013

18 JUNE - 18 JULY

Where: You will be living and studying in the fabled capital of the Byzantine and Ottoman empires and the cultural and commercial hub of modern Turkey.

What: You will live and take up to 6 hours of classes in a modern private university setting. You will visit magnificent historic sites and cultural events in Istanbul and nearby cities.

What else: Aegean coast excursion is included!

Apply by 15 February!

And: In-country transportation, housing and some meals (during the Aegean coast excursion).

Scholarship money available! Check it out at http://www.bellarmine.edu/international/scholarships.aspx

Course Options (you may take up to two courses):

- Turkey in the Contemporary World (Dr. T. Welliver).

 This can fulfill the Gen-Ed requirement for IDC 301.
- The Islamic World to 1300. (Dr. T. Welliver).
- Islamic Philosophy (Dr. Peter Fosl)
- Introduction to Comparative Politics (Dr. Marybeth Beller)
- Sovernment and Politics of the Middle East (Dr. Marybeth Beller)

APPLY EARLY!

Save $100 off the program fee if applying by 20 January!

PROGRAM FEE $3275 (PLUS GROUP AIRFARE)

Kentucky Institute for International Studies www.kiis.org W. Kentucky U. Bowling Green, KY 270.745.4416 Dr. Tim Welliver
Department of History
Pasteur 208 D
Bellarmine University
502.272.8068

twelliver@bellarmine.edu

Erica Ward
Study Abroad Advisor
International Programs
Office
Miles 149
502.272.8423
eward@bellarmine.edu

