

Course Description

British Playwrights & Their Influence on the American Stage

THEA 370, ENG 434 & IDC 301

3 credit hours

This course concentrates on several British playwrights. Through readings and discussions of the playwrights' works we will understand why they have become part of both the British and the American stage repertoire.

We'll have the opportunity to attend live performances at renowned theatre companies such as "The Globe," "The Old Vic," "The National Theatre," "The Hampstead Theatre" and at The West End. Visits and tours to Stratford-upon-Avon, Cambridge, Oxford, The Theatre Museum, Shakespeare's Globe, The Tower of London, The Gallery, and Harry Potter Studios, as well as famous historical markets will be part of the class activities.

Program Overview

Join CCSA on this largest and longest running program: one month in one of the most exciting and cosmopolitan cities on earth, a wonderful background against which to study a wide array of subjects. All roads may lead to Rome, but achievements in almost every field of human endeavor find their point of origin in this city, the capital of what was once the largest empire in the world. By making use of university housing and facilities at the Hampstead campus of the University of London's King's College, CCSA is able to offer a rich program that combines classroom and course specific field trips activities, while leaving students free to explore parts of England by rail.
