*Exploring Historical Traditions
 in British Theatre*

(THEA 300, THEA 246 or IDC 301)

Explore the world of 19th Century British theatre and what it meant to be an actor before film and television. Through interactive tours to Drury Lane Theatre, The Royal Theatre, Shakespeare's Globe Theatre, Stratford-upon-Avon, and theatres in London's West End, develop a complete picture of the influence of the Kemble family in particular.

Excursions include: Drury Lane theatre, the Royal Theatre, Shakespeare's Globe Theatre, Stratford-upon-Avon, and theatres in London's West End.
