A Cross-Cultural Exploration of Aging in England

(NURS 346, IDC 301 or NURS 623)

This course defines our community as the world. Caring for and about aging populations will be explored, as well as planning now for long healthy lives. Students will meet and work with the people of England, truly experiencing how culture, political affiliation, finances, climate, and geographic location, affect health and lifestyle, quality of life and end-of-life issues.

Excursions include St. Christopher's Hospice in London, Stonehenge, castles, and care homes.
