

KIIS Summer
Italy: Art
May 23—June 21, 2018

Deadlines:
Early($100 off)—
Dec. 1, 2017
Final—Feb. 15, 2018

The Graphic Travelogue
(ART 342 & IDC 301)

You will create a graphic travelogue of your trip through creative storytelling. The historic cities and their masterworks will become the backdrop. Record your daily excursions to cathedrals and museums, your many culinary explorations, and your funny and strange encounters in pictures and words. Discover the many elements for developing your personal travel story.

Art of the Italian Renaissance
(ART 342 & IDC 301)

The course offers a survey of Renaissance art with a focus on Florence & Rome, in coordination with the program itinerary. You will examine the cultural "rebirth" that defines the period.

Estimated Program Fee:

Option 1 (without airfare): $4,825

Option 2 (with airfare): $6,625 - $6,725

Includes: - Up to 6 credit hours - Excursions
- Airport transfers in Italy - Accommodations
- Breakfast & lunch - Group transportation
- Comprehensive medical insurance
- Security evacuation protection

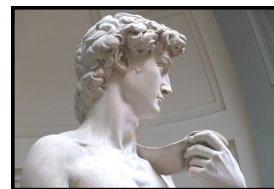

Scholarships Available:

- www.bellarmino.edu/international/scholarships/
- www.kiis.org/go/Scholarships.php

Professor Todd Smith
Bellarmino University
tsmith@bellarmino.edu

Office of Study Abroad and International Learning
Bellarmino University
(502) 272-8423 CNHH 111
bklein@bellarmino.edu

Please note: you must fill out both applications:

1. bellarmino.wufoo.com/forms/application-packet-for-experiences-abroad/
2. www.kiis.org/go/index.php