European Cuisine and Culture
(3 credits - IDC 101 or IDC 301)

Every culture has a story and very often it is told through food. Along with spoken language, cuisine is considered by many the most vibrant and practical expression of any country or region's identity, religious beliefs, history, political philosophy, socioeconomic status, and education. Discover Europe on this new Paris-and-Munich-based winter program focusing on food and culture in the heart of Germany and France.

Program Fee: $2,875
