

Knighly Adventures Abroad

Remington Colbert
Glasgow, Scotland, U.K.

If I could do it over, I would have spent more time in the Scottish Highlands.

Major: Business Admin
Minor: Political Science

Years/Term Abroad: Spring Semester 2017

Advice to future study abroad participants:
Explore, not Netflix

Name of program and why you chose it:

I chose Bellarmine's Bilateral Program because it was an even exchange at a phenomenal business school, Glasgow is large, and it was easy access to travel around.

Describe the Housing Situation:

I stayed in an on campus flat with two other roommates. We had individual rooms with a shared common area.

Best Memory:

There are too many to count but one of my favorite things to do was spend many afternoons at Kelvingrove Museum and Kelvingrove Park with friends.

How has this experience enriched your Bellarmine educational experience?

Learning in different environments has adapted my mind to understand things from different perspectives.

Greatest Challenge:

Understanding the Glaswegian Accent.

Experiences with Culture Shock or Reverse Culture Shock:

Adjusting to how laid back people were with the day-to-day tasks of life. Everyone was in something for the joy of it, not the responsibility of it.

What you know now that you didn't know before going abroad:

I am much more independent than I initially thought I was.

Live in the now, live for today
