

Knightly Adventures Abroad

DJ McCluskey
Paris, France &
Munich, Germany

Try not to be afraid of breaking out of your comfort zone.

If I could do it over, I would visit more of the historic locations.

Major: undeclared

Term Abroad: winter 2016

Name of program and why you chose it: Paris-Munich Cuisine and Culture. I chose this program because France and Germany were always two countries I wanted to go to. Also I love food.

Describe the Housing Situation: In Munich I stayed in a little hotel right next to the main market, very nice and safe.

In Paris we stayed in a hostel next to the Paris suburbs.

Best Memory: Watching the fireworks in the streets of Munich during New Year's Eve celebrations.

How has this experience enriched your Bellarmine educational experience? I made new friends from Bellarmine and it made me more open to trying new things.

Greatest Challenge: Trying to keep up the energy to explore and try new things after activities.

Experiences with Culture Shock or Reverse Culture Shock: Going from Germany to France - having to adapt to a different culture and language. I kept wanting to say the German words when we were in France.

What you know now that you didn't know before going abroad: Europeans take their food very seriously like it's an important form of art.

It's best to do something while you can because you might not get a chance to again.
