

BELLARMINE UNIVERSITY

School of Education Field –Based Experience Evaluation Form Junior, Senior (UNDG), Module II & IV (MAT)

Teacher Candidate: _____ Course: _____ Semester: _____

Please put a check in the appropriate column:

4/Distinguished The candidate demonstrates excellent knowledge, skills, and professional and dispositional behaviors needed for effective teaching.

3/Proficient The candidate demonstrates satisfactory knowledge, skills, and professional and dispositional behaviors needed for effective teaching.

2/Apprentice The candidate needs to show improved knowledge, skills, and professional and dispositional behaviors needed for effective teaching.

1/Novice The candidate shows unsatisfactory knowledge, skills, and professional and dispositional behaviors needed for effective teaching.

Candidate's Knowledge:	Distinguished	Proficient	Apprentice	Novice
The candidate demonstrates knowledge of subject matter.
The candidate demonstrates knowledge of lesson planning and understands: Kentucky New Teacher Standards, Kentucky Learning Goals and Academic Expectation, Core Content for Assessment, and the Program of Studies.

Please summarize the candidate's strengths and/or any concerns you have regarding the candidate's knowledge:

Candidate's Skills:	Distinguished	Proficient	Apprentice	Novice
The candidate knows how to design effective lessons/units of instruction.
The candidate understands the need to differentiate instruction based on learner diversity.
The candidate implements instruction effectively, addressing students' learning needs.
The candidate engages collaboratively with school staff.
The candidate facilitates the use of available technology when appropriate.

The candidate demonstrates a positive teacher presence (strong voice, eye contact, enthusiasm).
The candidate interacts in a positive, respectful and safe manner with the students.

Please summarize the candidate's strengths and/or any concerns you have regarding the candidate's skills:

Candidate's Dispositions and Professional Behaviors:	Distinguished	Proficient	Apprentice	Novice
The candidate approaches diverse learner needs and/or disabilities as a positive challenge.
The candidate is inquisitive about the environment, teaching practice, students, etc.
The candidate prepares for and attends the field placement promptly and regularly.
The candidate accepts constructive criticism and makes changes as necessary.
The candidate dresses professionally throughout the field experience.
The candidate speaks and acts professionally throughout the field experience.

Please summarize the candidate's strengths and/or any concerns you have regarding the candidate's dispositions:

Total number of clock hours spent in this placement: _____ (Please cross-check with candidate's Log of Hours.)

 (School Placement Site) (Class Observed) (Grade Level)

 (University Instructor) (Date) (Cooperating Teacher)