

Full Name of university:	Bellarmino University 2001 Newburg Rd. Louisville, KY 40205-1863 1-800-274-4723
Areas of study (degree programs) open for exchange students	Rubel School of Business: Accounting, Business Administration, Economics, MBA (space permitted) Bellarmino College: Art -(Sculpture, Painting), Arts Administration -(Art, Music, Theater), Biology , Chemistry , Communications , English , Foreign Languages and International Studies , Liberal Studies , Music -(Instrumental, Vocal, Music Technology), Philosophy , Theology -(Academic, Pastoral Ministries), Computer Science , Mathematics , (Mathematics, Actuarial Science), History , Political Science , Psychology -(Traditional, Human Services, Human Resources), Sociology -(Traditional, -Criminal Justice), Lansing School of Nursing & Health Sciences: Bachelor of Science in Nursing : 3 tracks, Traditional, RN ,and Accelerated, Master of Science in Nursing (space permitted): 2 tracks, Administration and Education, Respiratory Therapy (Traditional, Accelerated and Post Baccalaureate Programs), Clinical Laboratory Science (Traditional, Accelerated and Post Baccalaureate Programs), Physical Therapy (Doctoral Program) Thornton School of Education: Programs leading to teacher certification in Elementary grades (Primary-5), Middle School (5-9), with Secondary (8-12) and Special Education, Learning with Behavior Disorders (Primary-12) MAT
Areas of study not available to exchange students	Generally, placement of students in graduate programs is difficult.
Contact person for incoming exchange students	Hannah Holler Egea Study Abroad Advisor Phone: + (502) 452-8423 Fax: + (502) 452-8067 hholler@bellarmine.edu and/or: Ms. Jane Cantrell and Ms. Denise Lesch Administrative Assistants 2001 Newburg Rd. Louisville, KY 40205 Phone: + (502) 452-8479 Fax: + (502) 452-8067 jcantrell@bellarmine.edu ; dlesch@bellarmine.edu Prof. Gabriele W. Bosley Director, International Programs Office Chair, Department of Foreign Languages Phone: + (502) 452-8476 Fax: + (502) 452-8067 gbosley@bellarmine.edu
General web site of the university	http://www.bellarmino.edu
Total Enrolment	2,770 undergraduate and graduate as of fall 2007
Website of the international office for incoming students	General Home Page: http://www.bellarmino.edu/international/ Specific International Student site: http://cas.bellarmino.edu/foreignlanguages/BilateralExchange.asp
Academic calendar	Fall semester: end of August - mid December Spring semester: beginning of January - beginning of May
Examination period(s)	During and at the end of each semester

Orientation session(s) for incoming students	Orientation Day is during the week preceding the start of the fall semester. (Campus Calendar is available to all incoming students online: https://www2.bellarmino.edu/portal/)and additional orientation sessions are during the last weekend preceding the Fall semester. Fall semester and full year: Official arrival date August 16. Orientation August 17-23. Classes begin August 25.
Application deadline(s) for admission	International degree seeking: Rolling Admission International Exchange: April 1
Application material on the web site	The application documents for 2008/09 are available online: http://www.bellarmino.edu/admissions/undergraduate/interhowtoapply.asp
Course registration deadline(s)	For the first week of each semester you may drop or add a class in the Registrar's Office.
Language requirements	adequate knowledge of English is required with a TOEFL of 550/213
Courses	http://www1.bellarmino.edu/registrar/ No English language preparatory courses are offered.
Internships available?	In most cases, no. If a student is interested in an internship it has to be negotiated on an individual basis and is available for full year students only due to visa and I.D. card/ Social Security number issues.
Student jobs available/allowed?	Yes, students are allowed to work a limited amount of hours per week ON campus (generally 15 hours). However, it is up to the student to find a job.
Housing	Yes, applications available via the Residence Life Office: http://www1.bellarmino.edu/studentaffairs/residence/
Housing options	Generally Anniversary Hall is assigned to exchange students, unless exchange agreement calls for student dorm selection.
Housing application deadline(s)	See website for more information: http://www1.bellarmino.edu/studentaffairs/residence/
Cost estimates per semester (in Dollars) - Meals - Books - Personal Expenses	$ 1000 USD TOTAL per semester ($ 400) ($ 250) ($ 350)
Additional fees to pay	Music, Art, and/or other Lab fees (depends on which courses student signs-up for)
Comparable health insurance coverage from abroad allowed/not allowed	Yes, but must provide proof of medical evacuation and repatriation insurance to the IPO PRIOR to arrival . Otherwise insurance via Bellarmino's international insurance provider is a MUST . Student must also purchase the International student identity card (ISIC) prior to arrival. www.statravel.com
Health facilities at the university	A nurse on-staff, see Bellarmino University Health Services site for more information and pre-arrival health requirements: http://www1.bellarmino.edu/studentaffairs/healthservices/
Other relevant information	Due to new visa regulations, we recommend early visa application in order to be admitted to Bellarmino University in a timely manner.
Summer courses and/or Housing available?	No
Last update of this information	May 2008