For the first time ever, the two premium Kentucky bourbons — Woodford Reserve and Maker's Mark — are available for purchase as a single collector's item. A distinctive wooden case contains a pair of bottles, each decorated in Bellarmine's colors of silver and scarlet.

The case is signed by Bellarmine basketball coach Scott Davenport and the school's president, Dr. Joseph J. McGowan, while the bottles are signed by Maker's Mark chairman emeritus Bill Samuels Jr. and Brown-Forman master distiller Chris Morris '80.

This is your only chance to purchase this one-of-a-kind collectible.
