Methodology:

Entering student numbers (full-time traditional and full-time nontraditional) are reconciled with the Colleague cohort code. Regardless of exclusions during IPEDS, the original number above is maintained as it appears in Colleague. However, retention rates are calculated using an adjusted denominator (factoring in the IPEDS-eligible exclusions). See notes below.

- 1. Initial 2016 cohort was 635; adjusted cohort is 634.*
- 2. Initial 2011 cohort was 600; adjusted cohort is 595.*
- 3. Initial 2010 cohort was 577; adjusted cohort is 573.*
- 4. Initial 2009 cohort was 602; adjusted cohort is 600.*
- 5. Initial 2007 cohort was 568; adjusted cohort is 567.*
- 6. Initial 2006 cohort was 430; adjusted cohort is 429.*

Students who graduated in less than four years have been included in the third- and fourth-year retention numbers.
