EVENING WITH ROY: PROBLEMS AND OPPORTUNITIES IN FOREIGN POLICY

Through lively discussion, we will consider current problems and opportunities in foreign policy:

- The latest developments in the war in Ukraine – Are Americans losing interest in supporting Ukraine? How does the run-up to the 2024 Election affect our policies toward Ukraine and Russia?
- Potential rapprochement between South Korea and Japan, and the strengthening trilateral partnership in the Pacific.
- A look at the Middle East in general and an update on our great allies, the Kurds.
- The increasingly important roles of Turkey and India on the world stage.
- How U.S. Domestic Politics is shaping up as we approach the 2024 election.

INSTRUCTOR: Roy M. Martin, MBA, MA, is a foreign policy consultant and educator, in his 22nd year of teaching in the Bellarmine Community Education program.
