

Movie Review

1. Give a short description of the movie. Be sure to include the main characters, location, context and time-frame of the movie.
2. Explain the major theme of the movie and its relationship to Microbiology.
3. Describe any other secondary or minor themes of the movie and the relevance to Microbiology.
4. Compare the fictitious setting of the movie with the real-life approach to the microbial problem in the movie.
5. Critique the movie, (give it a rating and defend your analysis).