						This section of HONR 320TH is linked to Spring 2019's HONR 320H-01: Cuisine and Culture of Peru. Students who completed HONR 320-01 in the spring will travel to Peru May 6-May 17, 2019 and complete a reflective paper upon return. With a focus on gastronomy and cuisine, daily activities will enhance the classroom portion of the course as they include exploration of open-air markets, cooking demos, and museum visits, as well as excursions to important cultural and historical sites like the famous pre-Incan salt ponds at Maras. After several nights in Lima, the capital city, where students will volunteer for a day at an elementary school run by Ursuline Sisters, participants will travel to Cusco for a homestay with local families, where they will discover the Sacred Valley and the impressive archaeological ruins at Machu Picchu. From there, the group will head to Puno, where the experience will wind down with a boat trip of Lake Titicaca and its famous floating islands.
